Half down is required before start of job

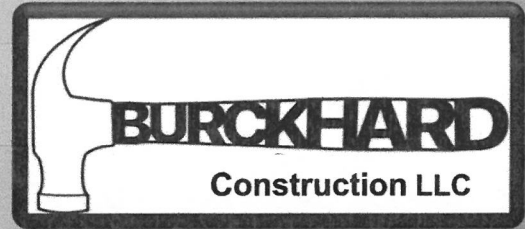

Please sign and date with approval of this quote before expiration date and mail half down and confirmation to address above. If material is above half, we require full cost of material in place of half down. You will be added to the schedule once half down is received. Once half down is received material will be ordered as needed. Our bids are by the job; we do not have an hourly rate. If material or labor is added it will be charged accordingly. Discounts are made at our discretion. Sub work is estimated and could vary from price quoted above. If a building permit is required, we will pull before the start of the project. The cost of the permit will be added once purchased. If cancellation is necessary, there will be a restocking fee covered by the customer based on store policy on all special ordered items. If you cancel after confirmation, there will be a nonrefundable 10% fee on labor total.

Thank you,
Brandon Burckhard
